Numb. 3247

SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1744.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, July 29.

'OUR last Letters from Toulon 'inform us, that the Engliſh 'Squadron, under the Com- 'mand of Admiral Matthews, 'ſhewed themſelves on the '15th, before that Port, re- 'tir'd the next Day, and on 'the 17th block'd it up en- 'tirely with 36 Sail; examin- 'ing, with the utmoſt Seve- all Ships that paſs'd, and making a prodigious mber of Prizes; ſo that it was conceived they re- to Vado, purely to gain an Opportunity of mak- more Prizes on their Return to our Coaſt. It is ch doubted, whether we ſhall ſend any Ships next to Turkey; but if we do, it will be a few only he larger Size. The Count de Maurepas, who was in our Neighbourhood, concerted three ſeveral emes; for the Execution of which, as many ſmall adrons have been ſince fitted out. One of theſe certainly be intended for the Weſt Indies, ſince ſent for a Dutch Man out of Portugal, who re- d formerly at Curaſoe, and is eſteemed an excellent t in the Weſt Indies.

t is very certain, that a great Action has happen'd the Frontiers of Piedmont; and we have Reaſon believe that Chateau Dauphine is taken: But, on other Hand, it is ſaid we have purchas'd it at a dear Rate. A great Miniſter propos'd the poſt- ing this Expedition to the next Spring; and pro- y his Advice had been taken, if the Prince of mpo Florido had not acquainted M. Noailes, that r Catholick Majeſties would look upon that as a eſt Breach of the laſt Treaty, and would immee- ely treat with the Allies about a ſeparate Peace, and eſtabliſhing the Infant Don Philip, by fair Means, taly.

The Caſe of the Miniſtry ſeems to be, at preſent, rely employ'd in finding out the neceſſary Funds ſupporting his Majeſty's Expences next Year. It id, a Scheme is on Foot for levying a very extra- nary Sum upon the Clergy; partly by Way of Tax, partly by Way of Loan. It is likewiſe ſaid, that hall have a Lottery, the Tickets of which will be o low a Price, as to be in every Body's Power; and Prizes, Annuities, charg'd upon the moſt ſettled certain of the King's Revenues. There is yet an- er Scheme for raiſing Money whiſper'd about, ich is, by an Aſſiento Company; and ſome People that the Negotiation for this Purpoſe is far ad- c'd with the Court of Spain; tho' others doubt, ether Spain can make Peace with England without ewing that Contract.

ccording to the laſt Advices from Franckfort, there Miſunderſtanding between that Court and this, on count of the Slowneſs with which the Subſidies to his Imperial Majeſty have been paid. It is alſo bted, whether the Turn of Affairs in Flanders will have a bad Effect on that Court, ſince his Impe- l Majeſty had certainly an Inclination to paſs ſome me at Bruſſels. M. Coigny has written a Letter, hich is handed about here, in which he charges all t has happen'd upon the Rhine, to the Account of Elector of Mentz; whoſe viſible Partiality to the ſtrians, will, probably, draw upon him the Reſent- nt of their Imperial and moſt Chriſtian Majeſties.'

AMERICA.

Newport, May 4. On Tueſday Captain James Allen, in Privateer Revenge, returned from his Cruize; and next Day arrived his Prize, a large Sloop, of 8 Car- e, and 12 Swivel Guns, and 40 Men, which he took w Hours after ſhe came out of the Havanna. She, her Conſort, fought under Dutch Colours, and kill'd Gunner of the Privateer, but hurt no other Man. hear ſhe has 15,000 Mill'd Dollars, and about the Va- of 5000 more in Wrought Plate, beſides a Cargo of s, &c.

We learn by ſome Engliſh Priſoners on board, that the ort of the Arrival of Admiral de Torres in Europe, h the Spaniſh Fleet and Money, is wholly groundleſs. e Spaniards are now fitting three or four Ships to y Home the Money lately brought by their Fleet m Mexico, and are making great Preparations to diſ- leſs the Engliſh at Ratan.

The Priſoners confirm the very odd Account of the e Prize taken ſome Time ago by Capt. Allen, and ſent newards with five Men; viz. That one of them re- ng to go into New Providence, (from whence he had deſerted) there enſued a Quarrel, in which four kill'd one another, and the Maſter made ſhift to run into ſome Harbour near the Metanſa's, and was taken by the Spaniards, and carried to the Havanna; where are now about 150 Engliſh Priſoners, who, 'tis thought, will be ſent to Old Spain in the Ships now fitting out.

By a Letter found on board the Prize, it appears, that a large Ship belonging to Holland, having been chaſed aſhore by ſome Spaniſh Men of War, ſunk at Sea ſoon after ſhe got off, with above 400 Tons of Logwood; and that the Men were afterwards taken up in their Boat by ſome Spaniſh Privateers, and are now in the Havanna.

Boſton, May 28. We have Advice from the Weſt Indies, that 19 Days ago the French at Gaudalupe knew nothing of a War; but at Cape Francois they were encloſing all their Ground for Fortifications, with the utmoſt Diligence; and in all other French Places they are making extraordinary military Preparations, not only for their Defence, but are alſo fiting out a great Number of Privateers.

His Excellency George Clinton, Eſq; Governor of New York, has lately iſſued out a Proclamation, ſtrictly forbiding any of the Inhabitants within his Government, to ſhip off, tranſport, carry or ſend any Sort or Kind of Proviſions, Ammunition, or Warlike Stores, Trading Goods, or Merchandize whatſoever, to any Port, Place or Harbour belonging to the French.

We have the agreeable News from the Eaſtward, that the Indians in thoſe Parts appear well diſpoſed, and have declared their Deſires to live at Peace with us.

The Heads of the St. John's Tribe have alſo declared, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, to the Commander in Chief at Annapolis Royal, their Deſires and Reſolutions to live at Peace with his Majeſty's Subjects.

Yeſterday Capt. Tyng, in the Province Snow Prince of Orange, arrived here from Annapolis Royal, and informs, that they had Advice there, that a large Body of French and Indians aſſembled at Secanecta, intended to attack that Fort, upon which all the Engliſh Inhabitants had left their Houſes in the Town, and retired into it. Capt. Tyng brought with him 26 of their Women and Children, and many more are expected in other Veſſels.

We have had of late a flying Report, that Canſo was taken by the French, a White Flag having been ſeen flying there, which was look'd upon as Fiſhermen's News uſed to be; but laſt Saturday Capt. Tyng ſpoke with a Fiſherman, who informed him, that he had lately parted with a Marblehead Schooner, the Maſter of which told him, that he was at Canſo when it was taken, but made his Eſcape, and that the French burnt all the Buildings, &c. on Saturday was Sev'night.

Boſton, June 4. Laſt Saturday, juſt before Noon, his Majeſty's Sloop Swallow arrived here from England, with Diſpatches for his Excellency our Governor, and the other Governors of the Continent; upon which an Expreſs was immediately ſent away to Rhode Iſland, Connecticut, New York, &c. and in the Afternoon, by his Excellency's Order, his Majeſty's Declaration of War againſt France, and his Proclamation for the Encouragement of his Ships of War and Privateers, were publickly read from the Balcony of the Town-Houſe, the Inhabitants of the Town being then under Arms; and during the Solemnity, his Excellency was in the Council-Chamber, at ended by the Members of his Majeſty's Council, moſt of the Repreſentatives, and a great Number of other Gentlemen.

The Swallow touch'd at Newfoundland, and on her Paſſage thither took a French Ship bound to Cape Britton, and retook an Engliſh Ship homeward bound from Jamaica, which had been taken by a French Ship with a Letter of Mark, that was bound, with five others, to Cape Britton. Theſe two Prizes are daily expected here.

We hear the Swallow could have taken many more French Prizes, but had not Hands to ſpare to Man them.

Yeſterday, a few Minutes paſt Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, was felt here, a violent Shock of an Earthquake, attended with a Noiſe much like the rattling of a Coach. It was ſo ſurprizing to the People at Meeting, that many of them left the Houſe, and ran into the Streets. The Bricks were ſhook down from the Tops of ſeveral Chimnies in Town, and many Pieces of Stone Fence thrown down in the Country. Some reckon the Shock near equal to that in the Year 1727, tho' it did not continue ſo long. Laſt Night two Shocks were felt in the neighbouring Towns.

IRELAND.

Dublin, July 21. Thurſday laſt died at his Houſe in Swords, in the County of Dublin, the Rev. Mr. Aſpin, Prebendary of Swords.

The ſame Day their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices dined with the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, at the Mayoralty Houſe in Dawſon-ſtreet, where a moſt elegant Entertainment was prepared for them.

The ſame Evening, John Long Bateman, Eſq; Captain in the Hon. Col. Ponſonby's Independant Regiment of Horſe, was unfortunately thrown off his Horſe at Belfingtown, and kill'd. As he was a Gentleman of an exceeding good Character, his Death is much lamented.

By ROBERT FOSTER Esq;

The so-much Fam'd ANTI-DROPSICAL

WHich in a few Days infallibly [illegible] HYPOCHONDRIACK MELANCHOLY in MEN, VAPOURS in WOMEN, so as never to return again, [illegible] so severe, or of many Years standing, and even after all Remedies have prov'd ineffectual; and that by [illegible] striking at the very Root or true Cause, as well as removing the Effects, of those perplexing Maladies and all their Train of Symptoms, by which they mimick, by Turns, almost all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and [illegible] Rise from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigestion of Food, whence proceed Crudities, flatulent or windy Disorders in the first Passages, frequent Belchings, Choliek, and Uneasiness in the Bowels. Crudities, offend the Nerves, and, by Consent of Parts, the Head, and produce sometimes Giddiness, Dimness of Sight, confused Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, [illegible] Sleep, Frights, groundless Fears, and the deepest Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehensions; at other times, Fits, Flushing Heats, Reachings, Faintness, [illegible] and Sinking of Spirits, Palpitation of the Heart, [illegible] Tremblings, and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulsive Disorders, sharp Pains, fix'd or wandering Pain and Weakness in the Back, and other [illegible] innumerable and grievous, Symptoms, which [illegible] vast Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms, in their sharpest Paroxysms, [illegible] much fam'd and most pleasant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the most valuable Specifics in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the highest Degree of Perfection possible) instantly quell, and at the same time annihilate their real Cause, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, [illegible] ing the Digestion, occasioning laudable Chyle, and [illegible] good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and cheerful [illegible] regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength [illegible] so that both Cause and Effects of Melancholy and [illegible] are thoroughly removed by them, almost on the Spot, as [illegible] many Thousands of both Sexes they have presently [illegible] evince.

Whoever takes them for 3 Days only, will be [illegible] are absolutely to be dependedupon for an effectual and [illegible] Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine [illegible] Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to [illegible] which are to be had only at Mrs. Hoft's, at the Crown and Star in Cornhill, below the Royal Exchange, [illegible] Bottle with printed Directions at large.

The only short and infallible Cure

For that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, of ever so many Years standing, and that without any Confinement or the least Purging, which by an unexamin[illegible] is generally advised, although always found rather to increase confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DROPS

WHICH, without the least Trouble Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once [illegible] at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, [illegible] Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have [illegible] and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced; they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices of the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from Impurities, directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, [illegible] blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, [illegible] of the Limbs, languid Heaviness of the whole Body, [illegible] Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed in the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Distempers.

And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately causing a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (which exceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters or other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, being that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also effectually and immediately cure the Green Sickness in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and all other Chronick Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illnesses.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, [illegible] enliven the whole Machine, and affoord as much, make the pleasantly Lightsom, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and good for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as restore a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these somuch fam'd and [illegible] mical Drops have so universally gain'd among Persons of [illegible] for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all [illegible] tick Humours, and other Chronick Diseases, in such an [illegible] agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to impose them [illegible] under the same, and others under other Names; Be careful therefore not to be deceiv'd; but be sure to have the Right, which [illegible] the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at [illegible] tlewoman's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Hopkins-Yard, in the [illegible] norita, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.
